

Majestic Isles Travel Club Presents

Mack Bailey

Sunday, March 18, at 2:00pm

If you liked John Denver — you'll love Mack Bailey

Mack currently sings as a solo and is also part of The Limeliter's and The Hard Travelers

Mack Bailey is a nationally acclaimed singer/songwriter, with a strong, expressive, classically trained tenor voice, an impressive range and pure clean quality. He writes sensitive original songs that express the deepest of human emotion, social conscience, and lighthearted fun as well as popular folk songs we all love. In concerts, he touches the listener's heart and tickles their funny bone.

"Mack has the purest voice I have ever heard." ~ Curtis Young, The Jordanaires

"Mack sings songs of the heart and life experiences with a voice and charm that mesmerizes his audiences." ~ Joyce Sica, Uptown Concerts

"Filling Maryland Hall with vocal and human warmth, he was the consummate one-man show. ~ Jane Elkin, "The Capital" Newspaper, Annapolis

"Mack is one of the better voices in the music business." ~ Randy Sparks, The New Christy Minstrals

"Backed only by his guitar, Bailey's tenor voice was clear and seemingly effortless – music writers have used words like 'soaring' and 'wondrous' to describe it, and that works for me." ~ Chuck Agonito, Finger Lakes Times
